

Level 3 Certificate in Understanding Autism

About this course:

This 15-week course is designed to provide an in-depth understanding of autism, its spectrum disorders, symptoms, diagnosis and treatment.

Entry requirements:

There are no formal entry requirements for this course however, you will be required to complete an initial diagnostic in maths and English as part of the enrolment process.

As this course is delivered online, you will need access to a device with a camera and access word documents.

Eligibility criteria

This course is FREE if you are employed or unemployed and a South Yorkshire resident aged 24+ and living in one of the following postcode areas: Sheffield, Rotherham, Doncaster or Barnsley.

Modules:

The objectives of this qualification are to gain knowledge and understanding of autism, including:

- How to adopt a positive approach to supporting individuals with autism
- The current legislative framework relating to individuals with autism and how different theories have developed over time
- How to support and manage transitions for individuals with autism
- The range of therapeutic interventions and support available for individuals with autism and co-occurring conditions
- How to support communication and social interaction for individuals with autism
- How to develop an understanding of how individuals with autism may be vulnerable and the support worker's role and responsibilities relating to safeguarding according to legislative requirements

Secure your place...

T. 0161 233 2656

E. ProfessionalShortCourses@gceducationandskills.ac.uk

w. gceducationandskills.ac.uk

